RE: T-Mobile USA, Inc.
August 1, 2002 Form 499-Q Revision Rejection
Filer 499 ID: 822060
Docket Nos. 96-45 and 97-21

To Whom It May Concern:

On December 12, 2002 T-Mobile USA, Inc. sent a letter of appeal to the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) in response to the rejection of the revised 2nd Quarter 2002 form 499Q.

On April 18, 2003 USAC denied T-Mobile's appeal on grounds that the revised 2nd Quarter 2002 form 499Q was filed after the filing deadline of November 1, 2002.

T-Mobile USA, Inc. respectfully requests that the FCC review this matter. T-Mobile holds that the 2nd Quarter 499Q revision was filed timely as it was postmarked one day before the filing deadline and there is no mention in the regulation that the revision has to be received by the filing date.

For your ease of reference you will find enclosed copies of the following documents:

Revised 2nd Quarter 499Q with proof of the postmark date
1st letter of rejection of the revised 2nd Quarter 499Q from USAC
Letter of appeal from T-Mobile to USAC
Letter of denial of appeal from USAC to T-Mobile

Any questions regarding this appeal may be addressed to myself.

Sincerely,

RE: August 1, 2002 Form 499-Q Revision Rejection

The Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) has completed a review of the Revised FCC Form 499-Q that you submitted for the purpose of revising revenue reported by VoiceStream Wireless Corporation for the period April 1 - June 30, 2002. Please note that your April 1, 2003 Form 499-A submission reporting January 1 through December 31, 2002 revenue will true-up your company's May 1, 2002, August 1, 2002, November 1, 2002 and February 1, 2003 quarterly Form 499-Q reports. However, based on the information provided, we are unable to accept the Form 499-Q revision because it was not filed prior to the October 31, 2002 revision deadline. Per FCC Form 499-Q instructions on page 8, "revised filings must be made by the filing date for the subsequent 499 filing."

USAC recognizes that you may disagree with our decision. If you wish to file an appeal, your appeal must be received no later than 60 days after the date of this letter.

In the event that you choose to appeal the decision, you should follow these guidelines:

- Write a "Letter of Appeal to USAC" explaining why you disagree with this Revised Form 499-Q Rejection letter and identify the outcome that you request;
- Mail your letter to:
Letter of Appeal
USAC
2120 L Street, NW, Suite 600
Washington, DC 20037
- Appeals submitted by fax, telephone call, and e-mail will not be processed.

- Provide necessary contact information. Please list the name, address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address (if available) of the person who can most readily discuss this appeal with USAC.
- Identify the “Legal Reporting Name” and “Filer 499 ID.”
- Explain the appeal to the USAC. Please provide documentation to support your appeal.
- Attach a photocopy of this Revised Form 499-Q Rejection decision that you are appealing.

USAC will review all “letters of appeal” and respond in writing within 90 days of receipt thereof.

The response will indicate whether USAC:

- (1) agrees with your letter of appeal, and approves an outcome that is different from the Revised Form 499-Q Rejection Letter; or
- (2) disagrees with your letter of appeal, and the reasons therefor.

If you disagree with the USAC response to your “letter of appeal,” you may file an appeal with the FCC within 60 days of the date USAC issued its decision in response to your “Letter of Appeal.” The FCC address where you may direct your appeal is:

RE: T-Mobile USA, Inc.
August 1, 2002 Form 499-Q Revision Rejection
Filer 499 ID: 822060

To Whom It May Concern:

T-Mobile USA, Inc. respectfully disagrees with the Rejection of its 2nd Quarter 2002 Form 499-Q and wishes to appeal this decision.

The 2nd Quarter 2002 499-Q was postmarked on October 31, 2002. Per the filing instructions on page 9, "revised filings must be made by the filing date for the subsequent 499 filing." The filing date for the 3rd quarter 499-Q was November 1, 2002. Since the revision was postmarked on October 31, 2002 it was filed timely and as such we feel the revision should be accepted.

For your reference you will find a copy of the certified receipt which shows the Postmark date of 10/31/02.

Re: T-Mobile USA, Inc.
(ID # 822060)

Dear Ms. Delafosse:

After thorough review, the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) has completed its evaluation of the letter of appeal on behalf of T-Mobile USA, Inc. (T-Mobile) dated December 12, 2002 (Appeal). T-Mobile's Appeal requests that USAC accept T-Mobile's late-filed FCC Form 499-Q reporting revenue for the period April 1 – June 30, 2002 (Form 499-Q).

Background:

T-Mobile timely filed an original Form 499-Q reporting revenue for the period April 1 – June 30, 2002. This Form 499-Q was due on August 1, 2002 and had a revision deadline of November 1, 2002. In the Appeal T-Mobile asserts that the form must be postmarked by the revision deadline. FCC regulations governing the deadlines for revisions and the instructions accompanying the form on which the revisions were made state that "revisions are due by next Form 499 filing date". Neither the FCC regulations nor the instructions reference a postmark date. USAC received T-Mobile's revised Form 499-Q on November 5, 2002, after the revision deadline. As directed by FCC regulation, USAC relied upon the revenue reported on the original and timely filed Form 499-Q to calculate T-Mobile's charges for October, November, and December 2002. However, because T-Mobile's revised Form 499-Q was received after the deadline, USAC rejected the form.

Discussion:

The Form 499-Q at issue was due on August 1, 2002. Any revisions to that Form 499-Q were due by November 1, 2002, the filing deadline of the subsequent Form 499. USAC received T-Mobile's revised Form 499-Q on November 5, 2002 after the deadline. The deadline for form revisions is clearly stated in the instructions for the Form 499-Q on which the attempted revision was submitted and on the Form 499-Q itself. In addition, information concerning the deadline is posted on USAC's website: www.universalservice.org. USAC rejected the Form 499-Q consistent with its policy. Because T-Mobile's Form 499-Q was untimely filed, the Appeal must be denied.

Remedy:

Although T-Mobile's revised Form 499-Q was untimely filed, requiring denial of this Appeal, T-Mobile is not without a remedy in this situation. T-Mobile is required to file FCC Form 499-A (Form 499-A) reporting 2002 annual revenue. As provided in the FCC's Quarterly Reporting Order,¹ annual revenue information from the Form 499-A will be used to ensure that contributions for the entire year are based on all subject revenues for the year. This provides T-Mobile with an opportunity to correct the charges that are calculated and based on USAC's estimate of revenue. The Form 499-A, with a due date of April 1, 2003, will affect a true-up for the 2nd quarter 2002.

Decision on Appeal: Denied.

USAC hereby denies T-Mobile's Appeal.

If you disagree with the USAC response to your Letter of Appeal, you may file an appeal with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) within 60 days of the date of this letter. The FCC address where you may direct your appeal is:
